Pricing and services: The owner's name is Debi and Fit For a Bride offers services related to wedding dresses and the rest of your wedding party's clothing as well. The most popular service she offers is dress steaming, but cleaning and pressing of everything else is also available. You can ship to her, have her pick up, do drop off and your own pick up, etc.; however, as of 2015, she no longer delivers due to issues with some hotels.

The latest information I have is that she will still deliver to certain hotels for a fee, so it's worth inquiring if you do know where you're staying on the day you need your items returned.

She has very consistent great reviews on TK and a large number of people use her. My wife and I had her press/steam the wedding dress, five tuxes, five BM dresses, mom & grandma dresses, etc. and it came out perfect. She delivered to our room at Mandalay, but I'm not sure if Mandalay is still a delivery option given the new policy.

My Opinion:

My wife and I used Debi to not only steam her wedding dress, but also steam/press six tuxes and shirts, four bridesmaid dresses, an after party dress and a few other items. Debi came to Mandalay with a rolling hanging cart to pick up all the clothing on a Friday morning, the day before our wedding. She brought everything back right on time on Saturday morning. She was in phone communication with me several times to confirm schedules and ensure I'd be in the room for the pick up and drop off. She was a breeze to work with, pricing was very fair and service was 100%. You can't go wrong with this vendor.
