My opinion:

Honestly I'm not sure what to recommend here. There have been several brides who have used Lori and have had great things to say, however, just trying to put this page together it took me ten minutes to find her actual website, and then it has no real contact info on it. On my quest to find contact info, I found a few who had also had communications issues with the initial contact. So perhaps she's fine and nothing to worry about; it just kind concerns me when it's that hard to find contact info even though I have not heard any negative reviews of her actual services. My guess, coming from my own past experience, is that she probably has a full time job in addition to her own company which is why she does not post telephone or business address info on her site; it's the same thing I did long ago before venturing out on my own full time. Probably your best bet is if you're considering using her, post in the TK Vegas forum for recent reviews in case I haven't gotten them linked her here in a timely fashion.
