Pricing and services: N9NE is located within the Palms resort just off the casino floor. Contrary to the BS $25 to $35 average cost reported on the 'vegas.com' website, you should expect to spend about $80 to $140 per person if you intend to order a full meal and have a couple drinks. I guess in theory you could come out at $25 to $35 per person if you ate an appetizer and drank water.

Don't let that discourage you; my wife and I have made N9NE a staple of our Vegas visits for years and for good reason; their surf & turf is simply the best we've ever eaten anywhere in the world and we order it every time we go, possibly more than once per trip depending on the length of our stay. You get a delicious filet cooked perfectly and a massive amount of lobster, including a tail and claw. I recommend asking to be seated in Jeremy's section if you visit; he's an excellent server who's been there 7+ years (as of 2012). Additionally, if you intend to visit any of the Palms' clubs, ask your server to give you a comped cover charge certificate; they can get you cleared for VIP.
