Pricing and services: They have the typical array of limos that you're used to seeing up to party bus size vehicles. An advantage Presidential offers that many others do not is they have a 27-person mini coach (bus style seating) that can be rented at an hourly rate; good for a quick transport of a bunch of guests down the strip; most other limo companies are two hour minimum which is a waste if you just need a one-way transport, or two one-ways several hours apart.
