Pricing and services:

The Treasure Island chapel seats up to 65 and is open 10am to 6pm daily. They do also offer a poolside wedding as well as the very unique pirate ship option (aka the "songship" as they call it, but I like pirate ship, sounds better lol). TI is unfortunately part of the Cashman Crew (a name of my own creation); i.e. if you get married in their chapel, they'll force Cashman photography upon you; more on that here. Apparently they even try to charge you penalties if someone in the chapel uses a flash during your ceremony (reference). Even though they'll probably say no, if you're considering them ask if there is an option to not use their photographer.
